

It's beginning to look like... A Frisky & Mannish Christmas

Beyond The Cabaret presents

A Frisky & Mannish Christmas

Following a critically acclaimed, packed-house run at this year's Edinburgh Fringe where they received no fewer than 13 5-star rave reviews, pop comedy duo Frisky and Mannish are bringing their unique Twisted Pop Cabaret to bear on the festive season and making their West End debut - for one night only - in A Frisky & Mannish Christmas.

A Frisky & Mannish Christmas is a festive extravaganza like no other, brought to you by London's most exciting new stars. Frisky and Mannish head an astonishing line up of comedy, music and circus celebrating the Christmas season with serious style, including Bruce Airhead, Kalki Hula Girl, BBC's Angelos Epithemiou and The Puppini Sisters. It is hosted by the inimitable, ukulele-wielding, Des O'Connor. The magic of Christmas has never been so tangible.

A Frisky & Mannish Christmas is at the Lyric Theatre, Shaftesbury Avenue on Monday December 21 at 7.30pm.

Frisky and Mannish, the people who tit about with pop music to hilarious effect, have been let loose on 'The Best Christmas Album in the World... Ever'. Expect everything from Bing Crosby to Mariah Carey, Wham! to Destiny's Child and anything with even a whiff of festive about it (except the Power of Love, which, just because it made a nativity video, seems to think it's a Christmas song, but it's not). Not for those particularly attached to Chris de Burgh, it's Christmas, but not as you know it.

Frisky & Mannish have had a meteoric rise to fame, becoming the darlings of the alternative cabaret world within little more than a year. Now you get chance to join in the fun and see what all the fuss is about...

'School was never, ever this much fun... White hot... Slick, polished and accessible feel-good stuff ... Frisky & Mannish haven't so much arrived as been flown in by private jet as fully blown superstars' Time Out

'PURE EXHILARATING BRILLIANCE... AN UTTER BLAST... if you don't enjoy Frisky and Mannish you have no soul!' Chortle

'UNBELIEVABLE! Will leave you GASPING FOR AIR as they deliver HIT AFTER HIT' The Sun
