

JESSICA-JANE CLEMENT - TV Presenter, actress and model.

Jessica-Jane is currently making a name for herself as the “the hottest swindler on British TV”. As part of the crack scamming team on BBC3’s popular THE REAL HUSTLE, Jessica gets to weave her seductive art on the unsuspecting public, combining psychology and sexuality to devastating effect.

“I studied acting and psychology when I was at college, she says, so this is an ideal role for me”.

Born in Sheffield in 1985, Jessica-Jane was born to perform. By the age of five she was training five nights a week in ballet, tap, jazz, Hip-Hop and gymnastics. By age fourteen she had starred in her first film. She was offered a place at the Dartington College of Arts but fate intervened; she won a beauty competition and was quickly signed up to a top London-based modeling agency. At eighteen, she made the move to London where she quickly started making a name for herself as a ‘lads mag’ favourite and dancer in numerous music videos.

Within a year, Jessica-Jane had worked with many top photographers including the late Bob Carlos Clark on his exhibition and editorial 'Love Dolls Never Die' and Byron Newman who shot her for American Playboy. As well as modeling, Jessica-Jane won several presenting, TV and film roles including Jade Dragon in MOUSAKKA AND CHIPS (Dir. Danny Patrick) and the role of head 'WAG' Cindi Marshall in Sky One’s football series DREAM TEAM.

In 2005 Jessica-Jane won her role in The Real Hustle, and has been delighted to be a part of the team ever since. She has just completed filming series 7 – THE REAL HUSTLE ON HOLIDAY (shot in Spain), which will be broadcast in Spring 2009.

Fans can also catch her, alongside her Real Hustle cohorts Alexis Conran and Paul Wilson, on a DVD entitled THE WORLD’S GREATEST BAR BETS, which hits the shops on November 24th 2008. She has just finished taking part in the BBC3 show CELEBRITY SCISSORHANDS, which was in aid of Children In Need.
