THRILLER - LIVE

featuring the mega-hit songs of Michael & The Jackson 5

Thriller - Live, the spectacular, high-octane concert specially created to celebrate the career of the world's greatest entertainer and undisputed King of Pop - Michael Jackson and the Jackson 5, is moonwalking from the West End on an 11-city autumn UK tour.

It will open at the Alhambra Theatre, Bradford from Monday 20 to Saturday 25 September. Further dates are: Wolverhampton Grand Theatre, 27 Sept - 2 Oct; Princess Theatre, Torquay, 4 - 9 Oct; Theatre Royal, Bath, 11 - 16 Oct; Theatre Royal, Nottingham; New Theatre, Cardiff, 25 - 30 Oct; Palace Theatre, Manchester, 1 - 6 Nov; Theatre Royal, Brighton, 8 - 13 Nov; Forum Theatre, Malvern, 15 - 20 Nov; King's Theatre, Glasgow, 22 - 27 Nov; Playhouse Theatre, Edinburgh, 6 - 11 Dec.

And the non-stop hits just keep on coming from “I Want You Back”, “I'll Be There”, “Blame It On The Boogie”, “Can You Feel It”, “Rock With You”, “She's Out Of My Life”, “Thriller”, “Beat It”, “Jam”, “ABC”, “Man in the Mirror”, “Dirty Diana”, “Billie Jean”, “They Don't Really Care About Us”, and many, many more.

Bringing to life on stage the distinctive high-energy dancing and pulsating sound of many of pop's greatest hits, Thriller - Live blends eye-popping video footage and effects together with dazzling choreography by award-winning director and choreographer Gary Lloyd. He has worked extensively with artists ranging from Robbie Williams to Leona Lewis to Shirley Bassey on TV shows, stage shows and arena tours.

Thriller - Live received two 2010 Whatsonstage nominations, for Best New Musical and Gary Lloyd was nominated as Best Choreographer.

Thriller - Live was originally conceived by Executive Director, Adrian Grant, an associate of Michael Jackson for more than 20 years, and author of 'Michael Jackson – The Visual Documentary'.

Unlike other West End productions, Thriller - Live is not a rigid book musical with set songs, but is a constantly evolving music concert celebration. Since opening in the West End in January 2009, several world tours have seen the show play to acclaim in many countries, including Germany, Italy, Poland, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, Greece, Switzerland, Sweden, Finland and Norway. Further productions are planned for China, Australia, Asia, South and North America and Canada.

On June 24, 2010, to mark the year since Michael's passing and the 18 months that Thriller - Live had been in residence at the Lyric Theatre, a permanent West End memorial to Michael Jackson was unveiled in the foyer by the cast and Britain's top dance group, Diversity, winner's of "Britain's Got Talent", who had been booked by Michael to perform alongside him at his 50 “This Is It” dates at the O2 Arena.

On Friday June 25, 2010, ahead of that evening's performance, six of the young boys who have played Michael Jackson in the West End production of Thriller - Live gave the world premiere performance of “Speechless – The Tribute” a new single specially recorded for the event. All proceeds from sales of the single will go to War Child.

In a phenomenal, unparalleled career, Michael Jackson sold more than 750 million records, had 13 number one singles - more than any other male artist - and is one of the few artists to have been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame twice; once as a member of The Jackson 5 in 1997 and later as a solo artist in 2001. His numerous other achievements include multiple Guinness World Records, including one for “Thriller” as the world's best-selling album of all time - 100 million copies and counting.
