BARB JUNGR

MAN IN THE BLACK COAT TOUR

Barb Jungr Sings The Songs of Bob Dylan

“Barb Jungr is our best interpreter of Dylan’s songs” - Billy Bragg

This winter internationally acclaimed singer Barb Jungr is touring the UK with a celebration of the songs of Bob Dylan. Although Jungr has won both critical praise and a huge following for her renditions of Dylan’s work, this is the first time she has put together a whole show dedicated to the work of the man she considers to be amongst the greatest songwriters of the twentieth century. Barb’s interpretations of Dylan have attracted new fans to his songbook and have shed new light on his work to those who have known and loved him for years.

“Dylan is certainly the greatest songwriter of his generation” says Jungr “He’s up there with Irving Berlin and George Gershwin. Everyone else of his generation pales in his wake. He handles difficult subjects with beautiful lyricism and, both as a singer and a listener, one constantly finds new depths to his work.”

Jungr’s army of fans include Jeremy Irons who selected her version of I Want You as one of his Desert Island Discs in 2006. This show will include this and some of his other best known songs set to Jungr’s hallmark arrangements such as Not Dark Yet, Times They Are A Changin’, I’ll Be Your Baby Tonight and Dylan’s signature “Like a Rollin’ Stone”

“Of all the new takes on Dylan, none is more essential than Jungr’s” New York Sun

The tour of Man In The Black Coat kicks off on January 13th in Bristol and culminates in two dates at London’s Pizza Express Jazz Club in Soho at the end of February

With rave reviews internationally and two New York awards (2008 Nightlife Award for Outstanding Cabaret Vocalist and Best International Artist 2003 Backstage Award), Barb Jungr is renowned for her unique vocal and interpretative style.

Critics have compared her to Nina Simone and Peggy Lee, hailing her and “one of the best interpreters of Jacques Brel and Bob Dylan anywhere on this planet today” (Village Voice). The New York Times found her “mesmerizing” (full biography accompanies this release)
